I work on the street with homeless people. We help feed them but I go around and talk to them and ask them what I can pray for them. When they want to get free from drugs or alcohol I try to talk a bit about identity and who God says they are. The other day we had a lady who wanted to get free and we told her she could change who she listens to. We gave her some of your list of declarations and asked if she would try declaring them over herself. She said she would. Two weeks later she came back to get dinner and said she had been declaring what God says over herself every day since we gave them to her. Thanks for your help and ministry.
